

Addendum to "Why Have I Started Blogging?"

In the beginning, I had no idea what blogging was; I want to clarify things because I have learned a lot since my first post.

1) This blog is not. . .

I looked at a few blog pages and discovered many are what I would call "income producers." The blogger receives monies through advertisements, etc. They also invite others to "join," and they can also have a source of income through blogging.

"That We May Know Him" was not created for income/revenue of any type, now or for any time in the future. I have nothing to buy or sell; all I am offering is Jesus Christ, His Word, and sharing some of my experiences and understanding, He has given to me.

I write not because we are all in the same "fellowship," but because, as believers, we are all in the same "family." As such, I call you brothers and sisters. We are the household of God. Christ only has ONE church, and as believers, we are all in it. Hallelujah!!

2) So why did I invite you to join the "group"?

After posting the blog, I learned Facebook did not allow "all" of my friends to see my posts. They permit only five percent, and they arbitrarily choose which friends see the posts. I don't want Facebook to determine which of my friends has access to my posts. I learned by creating a group; I could choose who I wanted to "invite." So, in the beginning, I sent invites via the Facebook "invite" button.

Since I don't see what the "invite" says, I'm unsure if it explains the blog's purpose. With that said, I want to share from the "About" tab on the blog page.

"As believers, we are all waiting for Jesus Christ to return. As we see the world around us falling apart, we have many concerns for our unsaved family members, friends, and loved ones. We want to say something, but we don't know how to talk about the Lord. Even brothers and sisters who are far from the Lord don't know how to return to Him. I ask the Lord for His speaking before I write anything. My prayer today is that as we preach the gospel together through our sharing this blog, many hearts will be "turned so that the word of the Lord may speed ahead and be honored." (2 Thessalonians 3:1b)

To those who have not believed in Jesus Christ, you should know that God commands all people to be saved.

"The times of ignorance God overlooked, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent" (Acts 17:30)."

3) What if you don't join now?

Again, I learned the Facebook "invite" leaves you in limbo, and you will receive everything I post to the group for the next 28 days. If we interact within the 28 days and you still haven't joined, it will kick you into another 28 days.

If you have received an invite and want to join, please accept the invitation. However, if you want to be removed, just send me a "thumbs down" through Messenger and I will rescind the invite.

Once you are a member of the group, you can invite others. Feel free to ask anyone you feel might benefit from these posts to join the group.

May the Lord be blessed through our endeavor in sharing the gospel. May we all become His disciples.

Your sister in Christ,

Marion
